Plant Resources, People and Religion in China

Through lectures and field trips to nearby mountains for the collection and identification of plants, students will examine natural plant resources, people and religion in Hangzhou and adjacent areas of China. Students from Zhejiang University will join the group during lectures and fieldwork to enhance cross-cultural exchange during this 3 week program.

Summer, 2007

Coursework:
Students take one course for 3 credits:

BO 495: Plant Resources, People and Religion in China (undergrad)

BO 595: Plant Resources, People and Religion in China (graduate)

For Details:
http://www4.ncsu.edu/~qyxiang

Cost: Estimated at $1500 and includes:

- Tuition for 3 credits
- Housing: double occupancy dorm with private bath and air conditioning
- Meals: 5 days at campus canteen and some group meals
- All local transportation, guided visits, and entry fees
- Plant collection trips to include: Tianmu Shan, Jiuhua Shan Huangshan and Qiyun Shan
- Cultural activities: Day trip to Shanghai, visits to Putuo Shan, Suzhou, West Lake and ancient residence and street in Anhui
- Health insurance

Note: International Airfare, Visa costs and personal expenses not included

Director:
Dr. (Jenny) Qiuyun Xiang
Department of Plant Biology
Jenny_Xiang@ncsu.edu
(919) 515-2728

APPLY ON-LINE:
http://studyabroad.ncsu.edu
Scholarship Deadline Nov. 3rd
Program Application Deadline Feb. 9th

The University reserves the right to alter the program format and/or costs in case of conditions beyond its control. If the program is canceled or a student withdraws, a refund of program costs may not be available in all cases. Please refer to the Study Abroad Office Refund Policy for details.